NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILI

Occupies the Greater Part of the Time is the House, While the Senate Considers the Montana Election Case and Passes the Anti-Trast Bill-Other Happenings

at the National Capital. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The house demorning hour were the following: Pro viding that persons settling on the second indemnity plat of the Northern Pacific railway grant between August, 1887, and Junuary, 1889, may transfer in their entries from that tract to other government lands subject to entry; to cause certain land at the headwaters of the Mississippi, St. Croix, Chippewa and Wiseonsin rivers set apart for reservoir purposes to be restored to the public do main; authorizing the entry of public lands by incorporated cities and towns for cemetery and park purposes; grant ing rights of way through various Indian reservations in Wisconsin to the Duluth and Wannipeg Railway company and granting right of way through the Colville Indian reservation to the Spo kane Falls and Northern Railway companry.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, from the committee on naval affairs, called up bill to prevent the enlistment of aliens in the naval service of the United States. The bill further provides that aliens now in the service shall not be permitted to re-enlist at the expiration of their present term. It was amended by the addition of clauses providing that the law shall go into effect July 1, 1891, providing that enlistment and service in the navy for five years shall be construed to be residence in the United States for the purpose of securing citizenship, and permitting the enlistment of aliens in cases of emergency on foreign stations. The bill was then passed.

Mr. Adams, of Illinois, called up the motion to reconsider the vote by which the house defeated the bill making appropriation to supply the deficiency caused by the Silcott defalcation. In support of the motion, Mr. Payson reviewed the decision on the Crain case in the court of chains. The secretary of the court of claims. The secretary of the treasury had authorized him to say that his department would not appeal from the decision.

A motion of Mr. Holman to table the motion of Mr. Adams was lost, and the vote was reconsidered and the bill passed. The house then wert into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation

Speaking to the bill Mr. Boutelle congratulated the country that, under the policy adopted in building up the navy had been demonstrated the fact that we were able to produce everytising that entered the construction of large ships. Mr. Sayers said that the report of the committee furnished no information respecting the increase of the navy and proceeded to criticise the bill, devoting his attention mainly to the provision for the large battleships.

Mr. Holman thought the present naval force of the United States amply sufficient. Mr. l'eters, of Kansas, thought the day for battleships on the ocean had passed. The strongest mandate was the diplomatic mandate.

Mr. Dolliver, of Iowa, said that the people of the west took a pride in the increase of the American navy.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, said the proposed battleships would be the pickel line of our defense. The navy that defended the American coast defended the farmer and miner of the west.

Mr. Lodge said that the quickest and best coast defence was a navy consisting of a few ships of the best and mosi powerful types.

The bill was then taken up by sections, but without completing the committee rose, and at 5:25, the house ad journed.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The senate considered the Montana election cases further but without action.

The anti-trust bill was taken up and after a brief discussion passed.

House bill to admit free of duty articles intended for the St. Louis exposition In September and October, 1890, that may be imported from the republic of Mexico was reported favoraby from the finance committee and pa sed with amendments adding the words, "And other American republics and the Do minion of Cauada.

Mr. Edmunds introduced a bill direct ing the delivery of duplicate law books to Howard university. It was placed or the calendar.

Mr. Vest offered a resolution which was agreed to, calling on the presiden' for a copy of the report made to him by the secretary of state, and copies of other correspondence in relation to the propriety of distributing the funds recelved from the Mexican government on account of the Well and La Abra awards. The senate then resumed considera case, and Mr. Spooner continued his jured. argument in favor of the right of the Republican claimants. Mr. Pugh argued in favor of seating the Democrat claimants. After speak ing a short time Mr. George interrupted him to calling attention to the fact that

ent. A motion directing the sergeant-at arms to request the attendance of absent last year. as agreed to.

A motion to adjourn was defeated. Mr. Pugh said he did not feel well enough to continue his argument, so it was agreed that the Montana case be laid aslde for the day, and the anti-trus

bill was taken up.
Mr. Sherman sald that while the bly was not all that he wanted, he believed that it was the best that could be got and he would therefore vote for it as i

Mr. Vest sald that he was satisfied that the public interest required the passage of the bill as it stood, and he was, therefore, prepared to sacrifice his private judgment as to one of the sections in order to facilitate the immediate passage of the bill.

Mr. Rengan offered an amendment extending jurisdiction on the matter to voted a greater part of the day to the discussion of the naval appropriation amendment on the ground that it was bill. Among the bills passed in the not competent for congress to confer jurisdiction on state courts.

Mr. George, while favoring the bill, expressed his fear that its effects would be very disappointing. He favored Mr. Reagan's unnendment. He proposed another amendment that it shall be lawful for any number of parameters. for any number of persons complaining of such in ury committed by the same defendant against each of them, to join as plaintiles, and for the court or jury to find the amount of damages.

Messis, Edininds and Morgan argued against these amendments, and they were both rejected. The bill was then passed years 52, nays 1 (Mr. Blodgett). The bill passed is exactly as it came from the committee.

The senate then, at 5:45 p. m., adjourned.

Prisoners Pardoned by the President. Washington, April 9.—President Harrison yesterday granted pardons to Thomas Primrose, convicted in Michi-gan for counterfeiting and sentenced Sept. 17, 1888, to live years' imprisonment, and to Frederick Bellevue, of Maine, for violation of internal revenue, to pay $50 and costs.

The sentence of Charles Bickel, of Kansas, for counterfeiting and sentenced to three years and $1,000 tine, is commuted to two years' imprisonment; sentence of Vincent R. Griffin, of Virginia, for keeping illicit distillery and sentenced to one month imprisonment in Henry county jail, and a tine of $100, is commuted as far as the imprisonment

Pardons are denied in the cases of Charles Corven, of Virginia, for retailing liquor without license and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and one month's imprisonment, and in case of Thomas F. Mahon, of Iowa, for violating postal laws and sentenced to one year's im-

Checking Chin se Emigration.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The secretary of the treasury was directed that additional force be sent the collector at Santiago, Cal., to assist him in preventing Chinese from coming at that point. The collector ind already arrested 130 Chinese while attempting to cross the border of Mexico into this country, These Chinese came over with seventyfour other Chinamen from Pekin, were transferred in the bay at San Francisco and landed at a point in Lower California, which is under Mexican jurisdiction. Those Chinaman worked their way up and are now, under cover of night, trying to enter the United States. Assistant Secretary Tichenor says that the Chinese arc by every pretext endeavoring to get luto this country from British America on the north and from Mexico ou the south, and under cover of law as merchants, etc., and that the utmost exertion on the part of the government can hardly prevent some of them from smuggling themselves into this country.

AN INSANE MAN'S CRIME.

He Instantly Kills a Young Girl and Then Shoots Hunself.

Medfoud, Wis., April 9.- A man named Willard Williams, nicknamed 'Crazy Kelly," went to the house of Judge Chinton Textor, of this city, yesterday, and addressing Miss Maggie Pritchard, a niece of Mrs. Textor, said: "Are you Maggie Pritchard?" She said: "Yes;" and theu he said: "You must die;" and drawing a revolver fired at her, killing her instantiy.

He then shot himself. He is allve, but will probably die. The feeling against Williams is so great that it is safe to say he would not have lived an hour had he not shot himself. Miss Pritchard was one of the leading young society belies of this village and a favorite. The cause of the tragedy is not known except that it be due to insanity.

Valuable Race Horses at Large. LEXINGTON, Ky., April 9. - Fire started in a row of frame buildings adjoining the Kentucky association grounds, last night, and quickly com-municated to the stables of the association, which were full of racers entered for the coming spring meeting. The stable hands heroleally saved the horses from the flames, but were compelled to turn them loose, and horses worth fortunes are dashing through the streets or jumping high fences in their wild flight across the country. The fire was got under control at midnight. The loss on the frame buildings and the stables amounts to ubout $6,000. The loss on the race horses will not be known for several days.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 9.—Burrell Ragsdale, his mother and his younger brother, used a tricycle to go to a neighbor's above Newnan last night. At Powells they were struck by a wild cat construction train. Burrell Ragsdale was so badly injured that he died at midnight llis mother was instantly killed. The boy escared. Rags lale was an employe of the railroad.

RITTER'S RECORD.

Under Arrest for the Butchery of His Sister-in-Law.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., April 9.-Mrs. Anna Ritter, wife of the triple and pos-This One Visits the Northern sibly quadruple murderer, Henry Ritter, died yesterday at the United Charities hospital. She was brought to that institution, night before last, with the death rattle in her throat, a strong smell of chioroform upon her person, and in-sensible. She remained in this condition till death came as a blessed relief from a life of torture.

The coroner is now lavestlyating the cause of her denth, and will hold a postmortem before concluding his inquisition. Her death is surrounded by a most suspicious mystery. It is suicide, or a case of murderous poisoning. She had been in lil health since the arrest of her husband for the murder of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Weiland, in the earl: morning of March 10, remaming at her home, where persons in the i endship of her musuant could have access to her room, and have nuple opportunity to carry out any slow murderous scheme the stolid, bloody-handed husband might devise to remove her out of life, and thus get rid of the strongest and only hving witness of his liendish murder of Mrs. Weiland, or, weary of the awful life of torture she has passed with Rit-ter, she may have sought surcease of sorrow of her own volition.

The history of Mrs. Ritter's family is one full of violent horrors. She herself lived in constant dread of death from violence at the hands of her Imsband. Her brother, Willian Gerald, died of a broken neck, to which were added many bodily bruises, as if inflieted with a club.

It is now believed, from revelations recently made, that Henry Bitter, his brother-in law, murdered him to get out of the way a witness who could convict him of grand barceny. Mrs. Gerald, mother of William Gerald, and Mrs. Ellen Weiland, and Mrs. Henry Ritter, died suddenly, and it is now remembered she betrayed symptoms of strychnine poisoning, and a female friend of the old lady does not hesitate to charge that Henry Ritter killed her for the same reason that he slew William Gerald a year latter.

This same fiend, Ritter, chopped the brains out of Mrs. Ellen Weiland with a cleaver because she knew, too, of his crimes and upbraided him for them, and for his eruel treatment of his wife, her sister, and now the wife is dead under circumstances of suspicion. Four members of the Gerald family have gone to deaths of violence in less than three years.

It is a fearful record, and all chargeable to Henry Ritter, who is little better than a living monster. Revolations are daily making that fasten lils crime upon Yesterday Sheriff Thornton made another search of Ritter's premises. In an old barrel, covered under a pile of rubbish and dirt. the shcriff found the shirt worn by Ritter when he murdered Mrs. Welland. This shirt is a horrible tell-tale against him, having been perfectly suturated in blood. When told at the county jail of his wife's death Ritter showed no indications of sorrow. He received the news with stolid indifference, remarking,

"Well, sl.e's better off." Late yesterday evening several bottles containing riquids were found in the Ritter house, and these are to be examined by experts to ascertain the character of the contents.

THE OUTLOOK IN CHINA.

Chang Chiniung's Railroad Project

Stopped by an Imperial Order, NEW YORK, April 9. -A Shanghai correspondent of The Herald writes as follows: The imperial flat has gone forth blocking the prospects of Chang Chintung's railway from the sacred city to the great emporium on the language, famous alike for its velvets and its teas, Hunkow. There has in fact, been a regular volt fuce in the capital upon the railway question, which is, after all, the subject upon which we "western barbariaus" are most interested in China.

But despite the signal failure of the ex-viceroy of the Kwang provinces to Cuicago, April 9.—The reported loss of life at Prophetstown, Ill., is unfounding the more prospectus stage with his vast project for the construction of a grand trunk line through the metropolitan province to the Yungteze, unless everyone who knows anything about the subject is very much mistaken, within the current year we will see a serious commencement made with railways in China.

It is not, it must be remembered, because the high authorities in the empire are in favor of such a revolution as a widespread system of railways would necessarily bring about, or that their ideas have so far advanced that they wish to see their old modes of traveling by sedan clairs through two foot paths, and picturesque boats through windlng creeks and canals, superseded by the snorting steed of the westerns.

No, the general spirit of the mandarinate is just what it was a century ago, but in the same way as China has been driven to supplant its ancient fleets of unwieldy junks by Ironclads and smart looking gunboats, because the "foreign devils" just half a century ago, showed the pig-tailed race how feeble their oldfashioued modes of warfare were against those of modern Europe, so the ruling class in China are to-day convinced that if the old leviathan among nations does not bestly herself, she will ere long fall to pieces from sheer inability to exist in the altered condi-

A miner by the name of Keating mysteriously disappeared at the time referred to and no trace of him could be found. The story now told by the dying man is that Keating was met on his way home and was murdered and his body thrown into a well on Gregory's lot and the well filled with sand. Gregory implicates a man who still lives near here. The well was visited and was found to be full of sand. A further investigation

By the way, what has become of the proposed new city charter? Up to last Salurday it had not made its appearance in the Legislature.

THE Prohibitionists were downed at Georgetown, Obio, Monday. The liquor people elected the Council and Mayor, and the anti-saloon ordinance is to be repealed.

DEMOCRATIC gains and Democratic victories were marked features in results of the municipal and township e ections in Ohio, Indiana and elsewhere last Monday. Democrats can view the returns with great complacency. There's nothing discouraging for them in the figures.

Anour $15,000 or $20,000 worth of barrels are required every year by the distilleries in the West End. In five years the sum taken out of Maysville in this way runs up to about $100,000. A barrel factory will keep this $100,000 here at home, to give employment to our peaple and help to build up the town.

REPUBLICANS are displaying unseemly haste in rushing through Congress the bills to confer Statehood upon Wyoming for $300 or more. and Idaho, but these new States will not save the party. They may help the Republicans to retain control of the Senate a few years longer, but only for few years the way things are now drifting.

In the past ten years the sum of $150,-000 or $200,000 has been paid out for barrels used at the distilleries in the West End. And all this sum has gone away from home to help build up other towns. 'The Commercial Club should "hoom" that barrel factory enterprise, and then, as soon as it is established, other industries can be discussed.

Five hundred weavers employed in a mill at Philadelphia struck a few days ago because the wages they were asked to accept "were not sufficient to keep body and soul together," as they expressed it in one of their resolutions. This we learn from the Philadelphia Enquirer, a Republican paper. If these five hundred weavers get any benefit from the high tariff, where does it come in?

Taz McKinley Tariff bill places diamonds on the free list. This is a great blessing to the laboring man. It will prove a source of much comfort to him to know that he does not have to pay a duty on his diamond stud and ring and his wife's diamond earrings and bracelets. With such precious gems on the free list, what does he care how much duty is placed on his clothes, boots and shoes and other necessaries?

Tag Iwine and cordage manufacturers are also up in arms against the McKinley Tarlff hill. Here is an interview with Mr. Fitler, a Republican candidate for President two years ago. It was published last week in the Philadelphia Enquirer, a Republican paper, Mr. Fitler being a member of the firm of Edwin H. Fitler & Co, of that city:

"Our position on this tariff question so lar as its affects hemp does not seem to be understood," said Mayor Filler. "We bave always wanted free raw material, and we do not think Keniucky's pony hempindustry abould be so enormously protected. * * *

"Our house employs about 600 hands of all classes, and everybody makes good wages. Il the duty is not taken off the raw material that we use Il will be impossible for us to compete with the cheaper labor of England, Ireland and Germany and pay the duty. We will be forced out of the business or out of the country. I think that it is pretty generally resolved among the cordage manufacturers of this country that If the McKluley bill becomes a law we will remove our machinery somowhere else. One-half of our factory would go to mexico and the other half to Canada or England.

This tariff question is a serious one, for the twine and corduze manufactures of the United States have an annual output of over $50,000,000 worth of manufactured goods. If the tariff bill in its present shape becomes a law the ludustry will be practically wiped oul, and 15,000 thousand people will be thrown out of employment" Republicans prated a good deal in the last campaign that the Mills bill would destroy the industries of this country.

How does the above strike you, coming from a Republican? The Mills bill put hemp on the free list. It would have given the manufacturers their raw manufacturers the country and these resolutions be printed in the Maysville papers and a copy of the same be presented to the parents of the deceased brother the charler be deceased brother the manufacturers the charler be deceased brother the charler be dec given the manufacturers their raw material free of duty, and taking their own testimony that is what they needed.

DENNY VERSUS BRADLEY.

Bad Blood Engendered by the Recent Meeting of the Republican State Committee.

Says the Lexington Leader, the most prominent Republican paper in the State: "It is understood that had Colonel John W. The meeting referred to was to select a member to succeed the late Colonel Godloe on the National Republican Committee. The meeting closed, however, without making a selection, and the matter was continued until next year. This was done after thirty-five or thirtysix ballots were taken, the vote being a tie between Colonel Bradley and Judge Denny. In an interview published in the Lexington Transcript, Judge Denny Suspicion Rests on a Chinaman With Whom She was in Company, Which May Lead to a Solution of the Whitechapel Crimes-Thirty Chinamen Under Arrest-Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, April 9.-The barbarous murder of Helena Montana, a disreputable woman, at Hobersthat, near Alx La Chapello, has created great excitement. The woman was killed in some mysterious manner in the open street, under the eyes of the passers-by.

The throat was cut from ear to ear. The body was disemboweled and otherwise mutilated after the fashion of Jack the Ripper.

The unfortunate woman was drinking with a Chinaman all the afternoon in a low den, and the pair parted apparently on friendly terms.

Rioting in Vicuna. VIENNA, April 9.-An immense meet. ing of striking workmen was held here yesterday, which, towards its close, became turbulent. The police interfered and were attacked with stones. Before the moh could be dispersed they had pillaged a number of Jewish shops and set fire to a wine shop. They prevented the approach of the fire engines until the shops were destroyed. The troops were called out, and fired blank volleys at the mob, which was finally dispersed. A tavern was sacked by the rloters, who smashed all its windows and battered down its doors. They then hurled stones at passing vehicles. It required two equadrons of cavalry and a battalion of infantry to disperse the mob. Fourteen policemon were wounded and thirty-

Man and a Negross Reach Mazagan. MADRID, April 9 .- A horrible story comes from Morocco. A large box was recently brought from the interior to the port of Mazagan for shipment. When opened a ghastly sight was revealed. In the box, packed closely together, were the bodies of sixteen young women, one man and a negress. All the victims had been decapitated and their heads were missing. Their bodies were embalined, and had evidently been in the condition in which they were found for a long time. The slaughter had been to all appearance, the work of some pasha, who thus vis-ited vangeance on his harem for unfaithfulness.

ANOTHER EAST RIVER BRIDGE.

To Be Larger Than the Present One and Accommodate Italiroads.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The bridge bill introduced in the legislature by Assemblyman George Greltsinger, of Brooklyn, and now on the order of third reading in the assembly, reveals a scheme of vast proportion. The bill provides for the raising of $40,000,000 for the construction of the bridge and its approaches.

This sum is $30,000,000 in excess of that provided for in Senator McCarren's bill which met its doath recontly in the senate. The amount named in Senator McCarren's bill was thought sufficient to erect a suspension bridge similar to the present structure. It is rumored in various circles that the purpose of the bill behind the Gretsinger scheme is to secure the right to erect the structure and then dispose of it to capitalists. The magnitude of the enterprise, however, makes these rumors unworthy of

It would be less difficult to dispose of a franchise calling for an expenditure of $10,000,000 than for one in which $40,-000,000 is the amount named. Investigation proves that there is something more than a suspension bridge for the accommodation of New Yorkers and Brooklynites behind the project. It is said that the effect of the passage of the measure would be to establish a direct railroad communication between Brooklyn and the west and render Brooklyn independent of New York for its commercial prosperity.

A structure higher, heavier and stronger than the present bridge and embracing some of the principles of the cantilever bridge is provided for. It is so designed that up to a certain point the structure would become firmer as the strain increased, and this adapts it for bearing the weight of heavy passenger and freight trains drawn by locomotives of ninety tons. It is proposed, it is said, to continue the tracks from the New York terminus of the bridge to the Grand Central depot, thus securing connection with the New York Central, the Harlem and the New Haven roads.

Twen- not yet been adjusted. At last night's conference the master plumbers agreed to pay a minimum of $3.50 a day for all journeymen, and an increase of 25 per cent. for the juniors. The journeymen plumbers are satisfied with this advance, although it was by no means what they had demanded. The juniors, however, who struck to aid the journeymen, are not satisfied with a 25 per cent, increase, and that is the hitch between the two arbitration committees.

The carpenters' strike is still on, although the men will probably appoint an arbitration committee to confer with the master carpenters. The strikers say that not more than twenty men are at work within the city limits of Chicago. They feel much encouraged.

Miners Combining.

TYRONE, Pa., April 9.—Three thousand miners in the Hontzdalo district held a mass meeting yesterday and agreed to join the United Miners' association in a body. They assessed themselves two cents per ton per month a man, for the purpose of creating a National defense fund, maintaining one National organi-

At Phillipsburg yesterday afternoon 2,500 met in mass meeting and took the same action. The per capita tax collected from the miners will amount to $125, 000 annually. The first action of the new organization will be the introduction of a uniform wage scale for dead work, which, if adopted, means a material increase in the cost of coal to many operators.

A Difference in Pay.

QUINCY, Mass., April 9.—The granite cutters have demanded nine hours at thirty-one cents an hour. The Granite Manufacturers' association will concede the nine hours, but decline to pay more than twenty-eight cents. The workmen will maintain their petition.

Nine Hours by Agreement.

LOWELL, Muss., April 9.—The carpenters, plasterers, stonemasons, brickmasons, plumbers, gas and steam-pipe men are now working nine hours in agreement with the Master Builders' association.

It is pretty well understood that the new penitentiary board will appoint Ben Dyer warden.
